

CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE
PARTNER UPDATES
November 2018

WESTERN STOCK SHOW ASSOCIATION

- WSSA has selected Saunders Construction to be the CM/GC for the Legacy building.
- Fall Feast has about 600 attendees. We hope to continue to grow this over the years. Those that attended ate well and received many free services.
- Stock Show is fast approaching, starting with the Parade on January 10.

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

CSU Program/Facilities Update

- Animal Health Complex design is starting in December
- Water Building design continues
- CSU Center is being co-located with Water Building on existing footprint. Design procurement is out and submissions are due December 17th. Design of the Water Building and CSU Center will then move forward in parallel.
- Construction Management/General Contractor submissions are due November 29th.

CSU Outreach/Engagement Update

Bruce Randolph School Partnership

- CSU is nearing completion of a MOU with Bruce Randolph School, outlining all of the ways that our schools are working together.
- CSU is gearing up for the National Western Stock Show, where we'll talk to classes in December about food and agriculture and those same students will attend the Stock Show with a class fieldtrip. Past month:

Events:

November

- 15 History Colorado Neighborhood Memory Project, CSU attended
- 29 Sustainable Denver Summit, CSU sponsored

Upcoming months:

December

- 11 The GrowHaus Toy Drive
- 12 Swansea Kinder Polar Express

January

CSU will be involved (2 booths) throughout the NWSS

- 8 Coors Western Art
- 10 NWSS Parade and BBQ Luncheon
- 11 Boots n' Business
- 14 Citizen of the West
- 19 CSU Day at the NWSS

DENVER MUSEUM OF NATURE AND SCIENCE

- New Exhibits at DMNS
 - Enter Mindbender Mansion, a quirky place full of puzzles, brainteasers, and interactive challenges that put minds of all ages to the test, ends January 6 – link.
 - iCUBA! runs through January 20 join us for this lively exhibition for all ages, where you'll be immersed in the extraordinary biodiversity, cultural traditions, and daily life of this intriguing country. The Museum worked with the Cuban community in Denver to enhance the experience, by adding live musical and dance performances at times during the exhibition's run, and contributing to exhibits with profiles and personal mementos from local Cuban Americans, including Maria Garcia Berry. - link.
- Sunday, December 9 SCFD Community Free Night
- Outreach and Engagement
 - We are working with Bruce Randolph to bring exciting new Offsite Programs to the school.
 - We will be offering outreach activities at Denver Familyfest at the National Western Complex on February 23
 - DMNS continues to participate on various United Neighborhood's Education subcommittees with Mile High United Way. Our most recent meeting was for the ECE Working Group (Oct. 30), during which we celebrated the formation of a play and learn group in GES facilitated by La Piñata, and starting planning for 2019 activities and goals.

HISTORY COLORADO

Saturday, December 8 / 10 am–2 pm

History Colorado Center

Written on the Land: Ute Voices, Ute History Opening

Hear the story of Colorado's longest continuous residents, told in their own voices. Take a journey to iconic Colorado places the Ute people call home. You'll see traditional arts, gorgeous photography, and contemporary video showing how Ute people have adapted and persevered through the centuries. Witness the tragic loss of Ute homelands and see efforts to keep Ute culture and language alive today.

We will be celebrating throughout the day with Native American artists, dancing and more!

Monday, February 11

History Colorado Center

Bruce Randolph Tour at History Colorado with Ricardo LaFore

Bruce Randolph School is partnering with History Colorado to bring 30 eleventh grade high school students to History Colorado. This group will work with Chicano activist, Ricardo LaFore who will guide students through a HC's exhibits.